

It is extremely important for Higher Education and the University of Nebraska to continue to grow it's information technology footprint in education via wireless communications. In that regard, we encourage FCC consideration of approving expanded utilization of Unlicensed Spectrum on the low bandwidth frequencies. These frequencies are necessary for continued expansion of our educational projects, reaching on campus as well as cross-country audiences in research, education and outreach.

Jim Emal, Director of Strategic Technologies
Office of the President
University of Nebraska
Lincoln, NE